Capstream Announces New Chief Financial Officer And Granting of Stock Options

Vancouver, British Columbia – Capstream Ventures Inc. (“Capstream” or the “Company”) announces the appointment of Shogo Suzuki as Chief Financial Officer.

Mr. Suzuki brings a multitude of experience as an entrepreneur and management in the telecoms, consumer technology, and video games sectors, in addition to having had financial industry background as an equities analyst at Fidelity International Ltd in Japan, and in the equities division of JPMorgan Securities Japan and CLSA. Mr. Suzuki has also worked in public accounting in both assurance and tax services with the Big Four accounting firms in the Bay Area and Silicon Valley. Mr. Suzuki holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Notre Dame (Notre Dame, Indiana), and a Master of Business Administration degree from the Ross School of Business from the University of Michigan (Ann Arbor, Michigan). Mr. Suzuki is fluent in English, Japanese and Cantonese, which will benefit Capstream in monitoring the International Investment Portfolio.

Mr. Suzuki is replacing Jonathan Younie as Chief Financial Officer. The Company would like to thank Mr. Younie for his contribution over the past year and wishes him well in his future endeavours.

Mr. Suzuki has been granted incentive stock options to purchase 500,000 common shares of Capstream at an exercise price of $0.45 per share for a term of five years.
